

The Three Englishmen (Ben Cottam, Nick Hall, Jack Hartnell and Tom Hensby) are a sketch & musical comedy group based in London. Since their sell-out Edinburgh debut in 2010, they have performed all over the UK and abroad, converting legions of new fans to their trademark surreal and heartwarming comedy.

We specialize in performances for children and teenagers. In 2011 we appeared on the hit BBC2 childrens' series Dick and Dom's Funny Business, and we have performed and run workshops at primary and secondary schools across the country, gathering the following praise:

“When we booked the Three Englishmen for a Christmas treat for our year 6 students we weren't sure how they would be received. We needn't have worried - both teachers and students thought they were incredible. Adaptable, accessible, fantastic comic timing and their musical sketches were brilliant. The students are still talking about the show, we will definitely book them again.”

Sonya Galouzis, (Drama Teacher, Dulwich College Saturday School, & Head of Drama, Duff Miller London Sixth Form College)

Having performed to all ages we have become expert at choosing – and, if necessary, adapting – material that is suitable for young audiences but that still leaves them thoroughly entertained. Our strengths in visual and musical comedy led to an engagement in 2011 with a Polish Educational Theatre company to perform for Polish schoolchildren aged 11~16 as part of their English studies:

Edward Dargiewicz, (Managing and Artistic Director, The English Theater Company of Poland)

The group also offers workshops in improvisation for secondary school children. Based on techniques of Keith Johnstone, Alan Marriott et al, these workshops were originally developed for students at Cambridge University. However they have since proved a great hit with secondary students, not to mention their tutors, who found them a great supplement to GCSE & A-level Drama courses.
